You will also learn about key role mobile and internet technology plays in CSE and about the differences between gang and group CSE.
	16. Sexual Abuse and Recognising Grooming - Children                  Child sex abusers can be anyone. They are not always adults - children and young people can also behave in a sexually abusive way. Usually the abuser is a family member or someone known to the child, such as a family friend or babysitter.
	17. Common Assessment Framework (CAF or Early Help)                  Upon successful completion of this training course, you will understand how the Common Assessment Framework (CAF - or Early Help) applies to your work.

	18. Domestic Abuse and Intimate Partner Violence                  Domestic abuse is a serious and widespread problem. In this course you will understand and learn how to identify domestic abuse, the different forms domestic abuse takes, and about coercive control. You'll also understand how you, local authorities and the law can protect victims of domestic abuse.
	19. Neglect - Children                  Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and / or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. This three part course provides an overview, so you can learn the signs and symptoms of neglect and what to do if you suspect neglect, an exercise and scenarios section, and a quiz section.
	20. Effective Communication with Children and Families                  This 'Effective Communication - Communicating with Children and Families' course will help enable you to communicate effectively with children, young people and their parents or carers.
	21. Equality and Diversity                  Maintaining an awareness of issues surrounding equality and diversity is essential to any organisation. This revealing course is split into four modules to thoroughly explore the issues involved and their relevance to us all, including protections laid out in the Equality Act 2010. With this course you will learn inclusion in terms of equality and diversity and the universal benefits of promoting an inclusive workplace. The course discusses protected characteristics and explains the problems surrounding prejudice and discrimination.
	22. Gangs and Youth Violence                  Gangs are very seriously intertwined with youth violence and criminality, and, with gang violence in the UK on the rise, it is essential we recognise the extent of the problem and understand how to safeguard our at-risk youth. This course gives a comprehensive overview to the subject of gangs and youth violence, helping the learner to understand what gangs are and what they do, the part women and girls play in gangs, and what can be done to prevent gang recruitment.

	23. Hate Crime This course will provide an awareness of what a hate crime and hate incident is and how prevalent hate crimes are. You will learn who the victims and perpetrators are, what effect hate crimes have on a person, and what the current challenges are. This course will introduce you to the law around hate crime and how to respond to an incident.
	24. Hidden Harm: Parental Substance Misuse, Parental Mental Ill-Health and Domestic Abuse The course provides a detailed awareness of hidden harm (toxic trio) and how it affects parents and children. This course will give learners excellent knowledge of the issues that affect children living with hidden harm. It will help the learner understand the cycle of events each hidden harm stressor produces, and highlights how to spot signs of harm and appropriate times to break this cycle of events to safeguard the child.
	25. Human Trafficking and Modern Day Slavery Discover what modern day slavery and human trafficking looks like, with this comprehensive collection of courses. You will also learn about child trafficking and slavery, how to spot the signs of modern slavery and what you should do.
	26. Information Sharing and Consent Information sharing is key to delivering better, more efficient services that are coordinated around the needs of children, young people and families.
	27. Missing Children This course will teach learners the procedures that should be followed when a looked after child goes missing from a care placement. It covers who to inform of the absence in what situations, to what extent the police should be involved, and what should happen once the child is returned to safety.
	28. Physical Abuse - Children People who physically abuse children can be anyone who comes into contact with a child. They can be teachers, next door neighbours or a member of the family. In fact, a person who abuses a child is often closely related to the child: it is very rarely a stranger.

	29. Privacy and Dignity - for Health and Social Care                  You will learn about the importance of privacy and dignity and how they can be maintained, as well as the principles of self-care and how to support a person to make their own decisions.
	30. Self-Harm                  Child and adolescent psychiatrists have seen an alarming increase in cases of self-harm in young people - it has been estimated that about 1 in 10 young people will self-harm at some point. This insightful course covers the subject from a variety of angles. You will learn the risk factors, the common reasons why somebody might self-harm, and how to respond to any person who you suspect may be self-harming. It also discusses how to approach the issue in schools and how healthcare professionals can feel prepared to help the people they come into contact with.
	31. Honour-Based Violence and Forced Marriage                  This course will increase your understanding of the issues surrounding 'honour-based' violence and forced marriage. It will also help you handle situations appropriately where this abuse has occurred or might occur.
	32. Female Genital Mutilation                  Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) is violence against female children and women, a serious public health hazard, and a human rights issue. It constitutes child abuse and causes physical, psychological and sexual harm, which can be severely disabling. Protecting children and mothers from FGM is everybody's business. This course will increase your understanding of the issues surrounding Female Genital Mutilation (FGM). It will also help you handle situations appropriately where FGM has occurred or might occur.
	33. Unconscious Bias                  This course gives a clear insight into the development and impact of unconscious bias, and provides an understanding of the benefits of awareness.
	34. Multi-Agency Working                  There is no precise formula for multi-agency working. It is complex, challenging and significantly influenced by the local context and personalities involved. Experience shows that there are many things that can help to make it successful.

35. Suicide Prevention

This course gives you a greater understanding of the issues surrounding suicide in our country today. It describes the risks of suicide to different people and how to spot the warning signs that somebody may be thinking of ending their own life. It arms you with the knowledge and confidence to be able to help prevent suicide in adults, children and young people, by providing you with the practical tools to use when encountering someone who may be vulnerable.
